

PROFILE

STEVEN GRUBB

Compliance for Business

Simon Smith has comprehensive international experience with responsibilities for transforming programmes across risk & compliance, finance, IT and HR.

Simon has spent over 20 years working in the Asia Pacific region holding senior positions in various business sectors including professional services (legal, real estate, risk & compliance). For the past 5 years, Simon has been part of a leading global integrity and compliance firm based in Hong Kong. He has now returned to the UK and is working as a consultant with Compliance for Business.

His strong commercial background, combined with the expertise in compliance, ethics and risk ensures a practical and commercially focussed approach to risk and compliance related problem solving.

Simon Smith